EMSync™

Software License Agreement

📋 EMSync™ Software License Terms

1. Ownership and Intellectual Property

The EMSync™ Software, including all source code, graphics, databases, documentation, algorithms, and proprietary methodologies, constitutes the sole and exclusive intellectual property of the EMSync Creator. This Software was developed independently without funding, obligation, or governance by any third party, including but not limited to educational institutions, government entities, or commercial organizations.

2. Grant of License

The Software is licensed, not sold. The User is granted a non-exclusive, non-transferable, and revocable license to use EMSync™ for educational purposes within an approved academic institution. This license explicitly prohibits distribution, resale, sublicensing, or unauthorized access to third parties.

3. Scope of Use

Licensed use is strictly limited to students, instructors, coordinators, and approved administrative personnel of licensed programs and institutions. Commercial use, governmental deployment, or third-party access requires separate written authorization from the EMSync Creator.

4. Restrictions

Users are expressly prohibited from: copying, modifying, reverse-engineering, decompiling, or distributing the software or source code; unauthorized rebranding, white-labeling without permission, or creating derivative works; sharing access credentials or enabling unauthorized system access.

5. Attribution Requirements

Any use, publication, presentation, or reference to EMSync™ must include the attribution: "EMSync™ - Developed by EMSync Creator, Clinical Education Innovation Platform." All academic publications, research presentations, and institutional materials utilizing EMSync data or methodologies must include this attribution.

6. Data Responsibility and Privacy

Licensed institutions assume full responsibility for ensuring compliance with applicable data privacy laws including but not limited to GDPR, UAE PDPL, HIPAA, and local regulations. The EMSync Creator provides the platform infrastructure but assumes no liability for institutional data management practices, user privacy breaches, or regulatory compliance failures post-deployment.

7. Support and Modifications

EMSync™ is provided "as-is" without warranty of any kind. While the EMSync Creator strives to maintain platform stability and security, no guaranteed support level is included in basic licensing. Optional premium support services, customizations, and updates are available through separate service agreements.

8. Termination

This license remains effective until terminated by either party. The EMSync Creator reserves the right to immediately revoke access for breach of any license terms. Upon termination, all institutional copies, data exports, and derivative materials must be permanently deleted within 30 days.

9. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the United Arab Emirates. All disputes, claims, or legal proceedings shall be resolved exclusively under UAE jurisdiction through appropriate legal channels.

10. Entire Agreement

This document constitutes the complete legal agreement between parties. No verbal agreements, email communications, or informal understandings shall supersede these written terms. Modifications require written consent from the EMSync Creator.

License Acknowledgment

By using EMSync™, the User acknowledges having read, understood, and agreed to comply with all terms and conditions outlined in this Software License Agreement.
